Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I enjoyed very much our conversation on the phone Saturday night. I found your candidness most revealing and welcome. I didn't know how my call would be received but was greatly pleased by your warm, hospitable, and informative conversation. Thanks again for making me feel welcome.

I have enclosed a check for $27.30 for copies of Whitewash III, Whitewash IV, and Post Mortem. I would greatly appreciate your autographing them if possible. As mentioned in our talk, I plan to prepare a slide show for school on the assassination using some of the material you have researched. Enclosed is a release form (home made). Being able to use the material is much appreciated.

Would you mind autographing my copies of Whitewash I and II? Naturally I would enclose all postal and handling.

Judging from our conversation, you are not only the leading researcher on the subject, but a first class person as well. It means much to me.

Again thanks for your kindness and I look forward to reading all of your works.

My very best wishes for improved health for you and your wife.

most sincerely,
